We respectfully request our friends to send in their Advertisements as early in the week as convenient and if possible, let us have them by Thursday evening. By this means, we will be able to issue at an earlier hour on Saturday, and will be enabled to give more of the latest news, up to the time of our going to press.

READING MATTER ON EVERY PAGE.

LOCAL ITEMS.

SATURDAY MORNING, AUG. 24, 1867.

Religious.

Our friends will observe in our Religious column that Bishop EARLY, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, will preside at a District meeting of that denomination at Cattle Creek Camp Meeting, early in October.

We are indebted to Messrs. STURGEON, DEMARS and RADZINSKY, for Registration Returns, for which many thanks.

Mr. JOSEPH DENCK will be at this place on Wednesday and Thursday of next week. Those wishing pianos tuned or repaired will please leave orders at Carolina Times' Office.

Legal.

On Thursday last, an interesting case was heard before his Honor Judge GLOVER, at this place, in behalf of Mr. JOHN PERCIVAL, of Liverpool, England, who was brought up on Habeas Corpus. It appears that LIZARDI & Co., merchants of London, entrusted large consignments of goods to Messrs. CAMPBELL & PERCIVAL, of Liverpool, for sale. Messrs. L & Co. charge that PERCIVAL sold some of these goods at a sacrifice, and pawned the rest at their full value, and left England with the proceeds, amounting to about $100,000. All this is vehemently denied by PERCIVAL.

The history of the case is this: The plaintiffs brought an action in case against the said PERCIVAL, and he was arrested, in default of bail to the amount of $100,000, and held in custody by the Sheriff of Charleston District. The defendant was discharged from this arrest, by order of Judge MOSES in Charleston, a few weeks ago, in accordance with Order No. 10, of the New Code. Thereupon the plaintiffs brought an action in trover for the same cause, and re-arrested the defendant.

After able argument before his Honor Judge GLOVER, in which participated J. BARRETT COX Esquire, for the Defendant, and JAMES W. WILKINSON Esquire, for the Plaintiff, his Honor ordered the discharge of the defendant from arrest, on the ground that a second arrest for the same cause of action was illegal, especially without a discontinuance of the first action.

Registration in this District.

The Weather and the Crops.

Cotton is in some parts of the District damaged at least one-fourth by the recent heavy rains; in other parts, it has suffered no serious injury. We have not the usual accounts from the country, on account of the bad condition of the roads and bridges, which we commend to the Commissioners for their usual consideration.

Iron Ties and Hoops for Cotton.

We have in our office another specimen of this article, which is about to take the place of rope, for Baling Cotton. DILLON'S UNIVERSAL TIE is highly recommended by those who have used it, as being very secure, easily adjusted, and as cheap as any in the market. Mr. HARPIN RIGGS is the Agent.

The Boards of Registration.
 We give below the various Boards of Registration for this District, as they have been finally arranged for the performance of their duties:

First Precinct.
 L. D. RADZINSKY, Chairman.
 I. TURNER.
 JOHN P. BAXTER.

Second Precinct.
 G. H. CORNELSON, Chairman.
 FRANCIS DEMARS.
 MAX WAGNER.

Third Precinct.
 M. L. BALDWIN, Chairman.
 A. J. OSBANDER.
 JOHN BUTLER.

Fourth Precinct.
 G. W. STURGEON, Chairman.
 DAVID GILLANCY.
 WILLIAM BENNETT.

New Advertisements.

See notice of J. W. H. DUKES, Sheriff, to Debtors in Execution.

We invite attention to advertisement of Corn and Superior Flour, by Mr. JOSEPH McNAMARA. Our friends should give him a call, and we insure satisfaction.

Messrs. D. LOUIS & Co., Agents, are closing out their Summer Stock at Cost. They also advertise Yarn at the low rate of $2.30 per Bunch. See Advertisement.

Mr. HARPIN RIGGS is still conducting his extensive Carriage Factory, with its attendant branches of business. He has also on hand two Cotton Gins for sale; and is prepared also to gin on toll for all parties who will give him a call. We invite attention to his Advertisement.

The excellent Primary School of Miss C. M. EVANS will be re-opened on Monday the 2nd of September next. Nothing is more important than early education, and we cordially recommend Miss EVANS as an experienced and competent teacher.

We take great pleasure in noticing the card of Mr. W. WALTON SMITH, Cotton Factor and Commission Merchant. Mr. S. has had a long experience in this business, and enjoys every facility for making ready and satisfactory sales of cotton. We can insure that all consignments will meet with prompt attention; as his numerous friends in this District, who have engaged his services in former years, can well testify.
